

A perfect start in Germany with your own intercultural coach!

You're an English speaker and have difficulties navigating the German language? I can help!

You, your family or your business is planning a move to Germany and you need a hand with administrative as well as with other language-related concerns?

Whether prior to your move or while settling in, I can offer you full and concrete support tailored to your personal needs, and can insure your transition is as smooth as possible.

You don't have to worry about language barriers and administrative nightmares! I will guide you through the maze of German bureaucracy from the registration office to the tax office, from real estate agents to schools and universities. Have questions about child subsidies or aspects of health insurance, life insurance or insurance coverage in general? Need to open a bank account? Have your car registered? How about translations of pertinent documents? I've got you covered.

With my help, you can begin your life in Berlin with a fresh start and don't have to worry about the hassles of paper work. That way you can concentrate on what really matters: your family and your career.

Services

My services encompass an array as varied as your personal needs. Following an initial analysis of your situation, we will then together devise a strategy that best suits your needs and expectations. Our first meeting can be in person, on the telephone or via email. Prices are on a sliding scale and will fit any budget – whether you're a career professional or a student.

What better way to insure your start in Germany goes smoothly!

Whether for a couple of hours or several days, I can guide you through all necessary formalities in dealing with various administrative concerns – either as an assistant or as your proxy. It's my job to help you maneuver successfully through this process.

Don't hesitate to contact me by phone or email for a non-binding consultation, free of charge.

A reliable partner

I've been living and working in a multicultural – specifically, in a German-French – environment for many years and am sure my knowledge and experience can be of service to you while you're getting your bearings in Germany.

As a PR and communications expert, I can also help your business when it comes to opening doors to German media outlets as well as other institutions in your host country.

Give me a call or use the website's contact form to get in touch. I look forward to hearing from you so I can offer my expertise, tailored to your individual situation and needs!
